saw the letters or photographs. He said they were sent to the Crimical Courts Building a couple of times while the Brandt case was before Judge Rosalsky. The records at Headquarters show that on April 15, 1967. Howard Gans, recursed for Mortiner L. Schiff, wrote a letter to the Police Commissioner commending the work of Taylor on the Brandt case. Taylor's work, insofar as the evidence thus far gathered shows. was confined to arresting tirandt when Brandt was notited out to him by a Pinkerton detective, ad seizing Brandt's property when ordered to do so by Inspector McLaughlin.

Lieut Taylor, after testifying before the Grand Jury, went up to Police Head-quarters and put in an application to be retired on a pension. He has been a policeman twenty-five years and is past fifty-five years of age, so his ap-plication must be granted.
